Haritha Keralam – Rejuvenation of Varattar training on 30th & 31st October 2017

As part of Haritha Keralam Mission, a training program was organized at Institute of Watershed Development and Management – Kerala, Chadayamangalam on 30th & 31st October 2017 for the rejuvenation of Varattar river. Sri. Antony Austin, Deputy Director of Soil Conservation, IWDM-K inaugurated the training. The various sessions were handled by Sri. A. Nizamudeen (Commissioner, Land Use Board), Dr. Ajayakumar Varma, Technical Advisor, Harithakeralam mission, Sri. Abraham Koshy, Rtd. Superintending Engineer (Irrigation Department), Sri. P.U. Das, District Soil Conservation Officer, Wayanad and Dr. Anu Mary Philip, Assistant Director, IWDM-K. Technical officers and block level task force in connection with the rejuvenation of the river attended the training.